The com. guided we believe by the Spirit of all Good, resolved to try a new way of celebrating the Birthday of our Blessed Redeemer, submitting the Plan to the Children. It was this: That five dollars of the fifteen should be used in buying Candy and Oranges and providing a lunch for a social Gathering. and the other ten dollars be used to help some other little folks, or big ones either who were less fortunate than they. The Children were delighted with the thought of helping others, and the thing grew and prospered the ten Dollars in money increased to $20.20 and it would have done you good, to see the pile of Good things that were handed to

Santa Claus for him to pass along which he with the help of some others literally did so in the evening. There is no doubt they could testify to the Solid joy they carried to many a home. The money was expended in the following way -
